Declaration of Commitment Háló Movement

Basic idea:

One of the most hopeful phenomenons in the post Second Vatican Council era in the Church is the birth and the flourishing of the lesser and greater communities.

The 21th century societies see a lot of needs, of which the most important one is the existence of the real life communities., where the people know each other, they talk with each other, they eager to learn from each other, they are glad of their existence, they are happy to be with each other, they render service, and above all, they love each other in a way as Jesus loves us.

- The Háló is a personal meeting-place, preserving its Catholic roots is open to every goodwill men.
- In order to preserve the evangelical joy of personal meetings, the Háló initiates, builds and maintains personal connections between people and communities in the Carpathian Basin.
- The Háló with its many kind of activities shows the communal face of the Church in a way, that the acceptance, the long-term responsibility for each other and the devotion shall become community-creating force.
